on the desk first. So that's the one that we will take up at this time. The motion is to Senator Schmit's motion then. Senator Goodrich, is that all right with you and your motion then, to take that up right now.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Yes. Yes.

PRESIDENT: All right, are there objections to taking up Senator Schmit's motion. 656, amendments to 656 at this time. Are there objections to that. Any objections. Hearing none. So ordered. We will take it up then. Consider the amendment. Senator Schmit.

SENATOR SCHMIT: Mr. President, would you read the amendment Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Yes, Amendment read. Printed on page 1083 and 1084 of Journal.

continuation of Senator Schmit's amendment read by Clerk.

PRESIDENT: Senator Duis for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DUIS: In regard..in regard to this amendment, Mr. President. I believe now that that amendment has been read, that every member of this Legislature would understand why you couldn't take that up at this moment. Because I would defy anybody who except the introducer, to have the slightest knowledge of that complete amendment in this short of time. Senator Goodrich, I think it is foolhardy to attempt to take this type of amendment up at this particular time. I don't believe that this bill is in that big a hurry. And I sure as the world want to know what is going into this and I'd like to know where the amendment came from and what it actually does. I've been mixed up in this Public Power thing since 1951. And if you don't think I'm not confused with it, and I don't know how long you have been mixed up in it, but that type of an amendment would take considerable study on my part, because I've also been mixed up with the wheeling proposition over transmission lines, and I know how complicated that can get from all the way from what they call a busbar to something else. So I'm not about to take this up, and I assure that I would at this time move to bracket this bill until next Monday. M

PRESIDENT: The motion is to bracekt the bill until Monday. Senator Goodrich.

SENATOR GOODRICH: At the same time I would like to state that there is another amendment on the desk that we want printed in the Journal, and it's being distributed to the members right now, and the amendment that has just been read to you is what's
